

Nayara Energy Inaugurates Multi Skill Training Centre in Khambhalia for Women & Youth Empowerment

~A step towards Empowering the Youth and Women of India

Mumbai, 03rd December 2024: In a significant step towards enhancing skill development and empowering local communities and as a part of its flagship CSR initiative Project EXCEL, Nayara Energy inaugurates a new Multi Skill Training Centre in Khambhalia Taluka. This training centre aims to cater the skilling requirements of Khambhalia urban and rural youth along with adjoining village's such as Kanchanpur, Harshadpur, Shaktinagar, Haripar Danta etc. with a special focus on women empowerment.

In its initial phase, the Multi Skill Training Centre will provide three foundational courses: a Course on Computer Concepts (C.C.C.), Tally & Accounting, and Beauty & Wellness, all aimed at equipping participants with practical skills.

In addition to this, participants will also receive training in life skills, personality development and general English to help them develop interpersonal skills and gain confidence in themselves. The centre will also provide learners with essential language skills for effective communication in their professional environment.

The centre was inaugurated by G.T. Pandya, District Collector, Devbhoomi Dwarka, and Amar Kumar, Head of Vadinar Refinery, Nayara Energy. Speaking at the event, District Collector G.T. Pandya provided valuable insights to the students on the current skill requirements and encouraged them to utilize these opportunities to improve their employability and career prospects.

Speaking at the inauguration, Amar Kumar, Head of Refinery, Nayara Energy, said: "This initiative aims to showcase Nayara Energy's commitment towards social responsibility by implementing various social upliftment programs in nearby areas. In addition to initiatives in education, health, and agriculture, the company is actively engaged to develop the skills of the youth. Nayara Energy continuously working to enhance qualities of life of surrounding communities."

Project EXCEL encompasses various initiatives, including skill development, promotion of women entrepreneurship, improved access to social welfare schemes, and support for farmers in reaching better markets. The establishment of the Multi Skill Training Centre highlights Nayara Energy's dedication to empowering communities and promoting sustainable development.
